

Amendment concerning the change in the term of office of the Director of Student Security & paying of the Student Security Staff

Insert the words, "the Director of Student Security" into Article V, Section B., subsection 3.

Insert c. The director of student Security shall serve from the Monday following Spring break in the year of their selection, to the close of Spring Break the following year. into Article IX, Section A. 1

Amendment concerning the Statement on Conflicts of Interest

Make this Article XIII. and move all others below it.

1. All regular members serving in elected, appointed, or nominated positions (officers) shall avoid any conflict between their respective business, professional, extracurricular, academic, and personal interests, and the interests of ASCMC in all actions they take on behalf of the organization.

B.) If the officer has a direct or indirect interest or relationship with any organization or individual, respectively, that has any transaction with ASCMC, the officer shall voluntarily reclude themselves from involvement with the issue, and shall abstain in any votes.

C.) If the President, Vice President, President Pro-Tempore of the Student Senate, or the Chief Financial Officer thinks that there has been a conflict of interest by any member of the corporation, they may ask the ASCMC Judiciary Board to consider the matter.

D.) In the event that the Judiciary Board finds that an officer has a conflict of interest in the contested matter, the Judiciary Board shall determine the appropriate action to rectify the situation.

Amendment concerning the expanded powers of the Judiciary Board & CFO

Amend Article IV, section B, subsection 2 to include the Chief Financial Officer as an officer than can convene the Judiciary Board.

Insert Article IV, section D, subsection 8.

8.) All cases involving conflicts of interest